Litter Action League Results for month of May: Inspection began at Post Office and Gortfree Road. There were 11 pieces of litter counted along this route. This litter consisted of cigarette butts, plastic bottles, sweet wrappers, take away cup and some broken mirror. From Post Office junction along Cong Road 1 piece of litter was noted. From Post Office to end of green / playground area 1 magazine and 1 tissue was noted. The Green Area was litter free. 2 pieces of plastic and 1 bottle was noted along stretch of road from playground to Lough Mask Inn. 1 sweet wrapper and 1 paper were counted along stretch of road that leads to the Church and Burial Ground. The area around National School and Car Park at football pitch were litter free. There is a slight improvement in marks this month. Judges remarked on the high number of litter on Gortfree Rd and asked for improvement on this route for the month of June where our opponents will be Bangor Erris. Míle buíochas do na rannpháirtí ar na scéimeanna fostaíochta pobail atá ag tabhairt an-cúnamh leis an comórtas seo agus le muintir an phobail féin atá ag déanamh iarracht Tuar Mhic Éadaigh a choinneáil saor ó bruscar.
